

Pam's Pumpkin

By: B. Marker

Pam had on a big, black hat and she had a big, black bag. "I am a witch. I made a pot of green slime. It was a lot of fun. I have a cat. The cat is black. He is a sweet cat. Together, we will ride up, up, up into the night," said Pam. They went this way and that way. They rode next to some bats. Then, they went to a patch.

The pumpkins were big. Some were yellow and some were orange. "I will pick this one up," said Pam. It fit in Pam's hand. "I will get this one," said Pam. From the big, black bag, Pam got some cash. She gave the cash to the man at the patch.

At home, Pam set the pumpkin on a mat. Pam and the cat gave it big eyes, a smile and a nose. They lit it up. They made a web with a bug in it too. It was a lot of fun. The End.
